

ROMANS 12:2

ABOUT THE GRAPHIC...

Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.

Romans 12:2

Romans 12:2 is loaded with good stuff, but if we are focusing on transformation rather than simply not conforming, I ultimately leaned towards a visual that depicted that.

I love that the PWOC logo encloses the image.

I feel like butterflies are the perfect depiction of transformation.

I have heard an illustration that if you put a bunch of caterpillars on the rim of a glass, they will just continue to follow one another around in a circle until they die. The creature that breaks away from that pattern is ultimately renewed, transformed, and given a new and beautiful life—free to fly! I love that these butterflies have broken away from the muddled mess and are flying high.

I also love that although they are all unique in design, following their own path with the cross in PWOC as their starting point.
