This graphic is made up of a few elements.

A circle shaped logo to keep with the familiarity of the PWOC logo. The trees represent the Wilderness. The mountains, aside from being a literal "rock," are often used as a symbol of a trial we may face. Similar to those trials faced while wandering in the wilderness and those we may face as a PWOC body today. The cross on top of the mountain is golden, similar to the metallic lettering of our PWOC logo representing the preciousness of Gods love for us. And finally, The PWOC logo rests on the mountainous rock, "the Eternal Rock."
