

Theme Explanation:

“You keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you, because he trusts in you. Trust in the Lord forever, for the Lord God is an everlasting rock.” - Isaiah 26:3-4

The lady leaning on the rock has no face or significant identifiable marks except the Truth of the Word she wears around her neck. She could be any of us at any time. Every believer can rest on the rock, the Lord, no matter who we are.

The wind blows the flag to remind us of two things: 1) this world will always experience storms, but 2) our focus and others’ focus must be on His faithfulness. His faithfulness is the flag we hold high and encourage others to follow as our rest.

The backpack represents some proper burdens that the Lord gives to each of us and some excess baggage, too. We need a lantern in our wilderness to guide the way. His Word lights the way. Another must in the wilderness is a First Aid Kit. Our only hope, our healing, our soothing lies with the Lord. The canteen represents the Holy Spirit who quenches our thirst. The compass reminds us to keep our eyes on His good will as we journey forward.

May your rest be found on the rock of the Lord!!
